

GUIDED ARCHAEOLOGICAL SITE TOURS

Butler Wash Overlook

An impressive work of Puebloan architecture situated in a spectacular canyon alcove. Come see the magnificent craftsmanship and admire the tenacity of those who made their homes in Butler Wash 800 years ago.

Maximum participants per tour – 15

First come, first served, so come early!

Tour Schedule:

Saturday, June 10, 2006

9:00am

10:00am

11:00am

Trailhead Directions:

From Blanding, travel west on Highway 95 approximately ten miles. On the north (right) side of the highway is a brown sign identifying Butler Wash Ruin and Overlook. The parking area is a paved drive just beyond this sign. Do not park on the gravel area immediately adjacent to the sign.

CAUTION!

Butler Wash Overlook is a fairly easy walk of approximately one-quarter mile each way over slickrock. There is no paved walkway, but the path is clearly marked and volunteers will be present to lead the group to the overlook. Participants should carry water. The USSP, BLM, State of Utah, or any other partner is not responsible for any injury sustained during this tour.

Sponsored by the Utah Site Stewardship Program of Southeast Utah

